We strongly recommend the landlord obtain a rent guarantee scheme, obtainable through Harrisons, subject to suitable references, for which the landlord will be responsible for payment. For further information on these Schemes please feel free to enquire via the office.

Harrisons shall be entitled to market the property for let for the period of weeks from the date of this agreement and thereafter until termination by either party giving seven days written notice.

Due to current legislation, customers who enter into certain agreements at their property have the option to change their mind and cancel within 14 days. We understand that you wish us to take immediate steps to commence marketing your property for let, including ordering your EPC (the costs of which you are liable for).
